What is Going On Tonight.
 Obsequies for the late Mrs. J. C. Duff, 87, will be held at 8 o'clock at the home of the bereaved family, 107 Main street.

The annual campaign of the First Congregational church for church expenses and benevolences has shown an increase over the figure of 1920. Wednesday afternoon Charles F. Riedert, a member of the ecclesiastical committee, reported that $1,890 had been pledged for benevolences, an amount larger than ever raised in the history of the church. The quota set for benevolences this year is $2,400, double that of last year, when something like $1,200 was raised. Several canvassers have not yet returned in full reports, and it is expected the figure will exceed the $2,400 mark when the campaign closes. Pledges for the church budget for running expenses, which amount to $1,500 this year, have reached the half-way mark and are increasing slowly.

Many members of the church are at present in southern climates and many of these are loyal supporters of the church, so it is expected that a considerable amount will be pledged upon their return to Willimantic. The amount asked for in pledges this year is the largest in the history of the church, but the committee members, looking back at past campaigns, feel that the members of the church will support the 1921 program as loyally as programs in past years.

Frank H. Peck, Charles W. Hill, A. J. Martineau, Jay M. Shepard and James H. Fuller of the Willimantic Rotary club left Wednesday morning for Boston to attend the convention of Rotary clubs being held in that city. The convention is for two days, Wednesday and Thursday. Several other members of the local club are planning to attend the second day of the convention, today, making the trip by automobile. The attendance at the weekly meeting of the Rotary club to be held this (Thursday) noon will be smaller than usual owing to members attending the Boston convention.

Mrs. John C. Duff and daughter, Margaret V. Duff, have returned to their home in this city after spending Easter week with Mrs. Duff's mother in Plainfield.

The recent enactment of law at Hartford permitting baseball to be played Sunday will not change local conditions, as during the past year baseball games Sunday afternoon have been permitted in this city.

Louis Sokolowski was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $18.15, Wednesday morning at police court. He was found guilty of intoxication.

Raymond Jacobs, 17, of Temple street, was charged with theft of $25 from the firm of Blanchette & Gilman of Church street. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to jail for 30 days. The youth is claimed, saw the members of the firm counting the money and when no one was watching he took the change and made off with it. He was arrested Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock by Officer Louis Paulina, who found him lying in the doorway of the Yonkers Building on Main street. Jacobs had been at the county home, from which he made his escape. Since being freed from the home he has been in trouble on several occasions.

Thomas E. Duff of Haddam, N. J., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duff of Winter street.

The 22 employees of the Willimantic Telephone company who went to New London Tuesday night as guests of the New London district enjoyed themselves, although they lost in a bowling tournament. The trip was made in the company's auto truck.

In spite of the cool weather of the past few days flocks of wild geese are seen flying north. One flock was noticed Wednesday.

Peoples of the brick school district No. 6, Coventry, have a record for attendance to the school during March there was a 100 per cent attendance. During the winter term which closed recently 51 of the people had maintained a perfect attendance record. This record was made in spite of the storm in February, when many of the country schools were closed. Mrs. Ruth Wallis of South Coventry has been elected a member of the Coventry school committee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Fred J. Snyder.

George L. Dwyer of Cambridge, Mass., has been appointed manager of the local milk station of the Providence Dairy company. He succeeds Wilson E. Wilmarth, who died recently.

During the past few months there has been considerable agitation among the clerks of the local stores for a Thursday afternoon half holiday the year round. The Willimantic Clerks' Protective association recently asked the business men of the city to endorse this proposition. At a meeting of the Business Men's association the matter was discussed at length and a vote was taken. The members of the association voted that the yearly half holiday would not be granted but Thursday half holidays would prevail during June, July, August and September, as in past years. There was considerable feeling among the clerks Wednesday over this decision of the Business Men's association. Whether the matter will be taken up again remains to be seen, but there is talk of strengthening the Clerks' Protective association to go out for Thursday half holidays for at least six months of the year. The plan will be for six months, from May 1 to Nov. 1, thus giving the clerks one-half day off each week during a part of the fishing and hunting season.

PERJURY CHARGE IN MIXED WEDDING AT WILLIMANTIC

(Special to The Bulletin)

Willimantic, March 30.—Charles A. Stedman of East Hampton will be brought before the police court here Thursday morning charged with perjury. He was arrested Wednesday afternoon in East Hampton, and brought to this city soon after three o'clock by Chief of Police Edward J. Killourey. Warrant for the arrest of Stedman was sworn out by Prosecuting Attorney Samuel E. Harvey.

Stedman is charged with perjuring himself in this city Tuesday when he took part in a marriage license to wedding year old Alice Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols of East Hampton. Before Town Clerk Frank E. Weston and Rev. Arthur D. Carpenter, who performed the marriage service, Stedman, who is colored, swore to the age of himself and the Nichols girl, who is white, as 21 years. The Nichols girl also told the minister she was 21 years old. Both parties gave their residence as Willimantic, naming the street on which they lived, and a later investigation proved this also to be a falsehood.

When the Nichols family learned of the statement of their daughter they immediately got in touch with Sergeant H. C. Hill of East Hampton to try to prevent the marriage. The officers came to Willimantic late last night to stop the marriage but immediately placed the Nichols girl under arrest and the couple were taken back to East Hampton.

Other persons connected with the case are also being arrested by the police to be held as witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stedman, parents of the groom, who accompanied the couple to this city are being held in custody in connection with the marriage of the two minors.

The Nichols family did not wish the marriage to take place and are taking steps to annul the marriage. Stedman is of colored blood, his bride being a Caucasian.

Mr. Carpenter who performed the marriage stated that he noticed the groom was colored and the bride white but as Stedman's parents were present and the couple seemed to care for one another he performed the ceremony. Another told falsehoods to him about their ages and place of residence, but he believed in telling the truth and as the Nichols girl was large for her age he did not hesitate in marrying them.

Over a dozen boys accompanied by Morris J. Hopkins enjoyed an educational trip through the city Wednesday morning. The city officers Wednesday morning. The boys were conducted through the Quinick-Windham plant and the Vanderman plant. They also enjoyed an inspection of the post office, telephone exchange and a police station.

Booklet on Camp Hazen are being sent out by the Y. M. C. A. to young men expecting to go to that camp during the summer months. Last year eight local boys enjoyed one or two weeks at Camp Hazen and it is expected that at larger number will go this summer.

A motion picture, Thomas Jefferson and Morgan, was shown Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A. The picture illustrated how a boy earned his way through school and made his life a success.

The final session of the naturalization class which, for the past nine weeks, has been studying "Clues for Coming Americans" will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Friday, April 1st at 8 p. m. As most of the men in the class will appear before the court in May to receive their final papers, Judge Pease will, on Friday night, conduct an examination similar to the one they must pass before the naturalization examiner. On this occasion there will also be presented to the five adult pupils at the night school the past winter, descriptive sums, badges, signed by Governor Lake stating that they were present every session. A few reels of moving pictures will conclude the program.

OCUM AND VERSAILLES

Through an error in the account of Easter music in St. Joseph's church, Ocum, it was stated that the music was directed by the organist, Mrs. Virtue Quinn. It should have been Mrs. Virtue Pequin, the church organist, who had charge of the Easter music, which was well received.

Rinsol

These fine granules soak the dirt out of your clothes

YOU don't need to rub and scrub for hours over a washboard to get the bad spots out of the clothes. You don't need to boil all the white things to get rid of that dingy gray look.

Next Monday just soak the clothes clean.

Soak them overnight with Rinsol, the new form of soap—in fine granules. These granules are so high in cleansing value that they loosen the dirt without any hard rubbing, without boiling. Only the worst spots need to be rubbed and those just lightly between your hands.

The ingredients of Rinsol are of finer quality than were ever used before in a soap product for the family washing. There is nothing harsh to hurt the clothes, there is no solid soap to stick to them. In these pure suds they soak as safely as in water alone; for Rinsol is so harmless it doesn't even redden your hands.

Rinsol softens hard water. For hard water make an increased amount of the Rinsol solution and continue adding it to your tub of cold water until you have a good rich suds.

Start using Rinsol this next washday. Use it for the big things that are hard to handle, for the very dirty things that you have always had to rub hard. You will find Rinsol as remarkable for the regular weekly washing as Lux is for silks, woollens, and all fine fabrics.

Get Rinsol from your grocer or any department store. One package is enough for your week's washing. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

MANSFIELD CENTER
 A congregation numbering nearly 200 attended the Easter morning union service of the Spring Hill and Mansfield Center churches held at the latter place. A fine musical program, including the chorals and responses, was rendered by a chorus of voices from the two churches, assisted by Leslie Nichols, flute, and Richard Drake, violin. The service that followed was impressive and beautiful, the theme of the sermon by the pastor being, "What Does the Modern Man Think of Immortality?" The decorations were of palms, Easter lilies, tulips and potted plants.

The Christian Endeavor service in the evening, led by Mrs. Leslie Nichols, was largely attended. A special musical program was given by the chorus and orchestra. A brief talk on the subject of the evening, "Lamentation from the First Easter," was given by Rev. R. G. Pavy, pastor of the two churches.

The leading feature of the program given by Echo Grange at its meeting last evening was a talk by Mr. Teifer of Spring Hill, who has traveled widely, concerning his experiences with the overseas soldier during the war. There were vocal solos by Alfred Dodd, accompanied by Miss Beatrice Cox, and a violin and piano duo by Mrs. Ethel Todd and Mrs. Gladys Tripp. Committees were appointed to arrange for a country fair in April.
